Support for Angola

NEW YORK, March 11—Support for the Peoples Republic of Angola has been urged by a 26-member U.S. delegation which met with representatives of the PRA and the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) in Havana late last month.

The meeting was hosted by the Cuban government so the PRA could brief U.S. press and organizational representatives on the new republic's political, social and economic goals and on the role of the MPLA.

The delegation agreed on the following seven-point program:

1. U.S. recognition of the People's Republic of Angola.
2. Collection of pharmaceuticals, medicines, fertilizers and agricultural equipment for the PRA.
3. A campaign to dispel myths about the MPLA and Angola.
4. Action to avert a U.S.-initiated economic boycott of Angola.
5. The granting of visas to Angolans who wish to visit the U.S.
6. Preventing any additional military aid to Zaire and South Africa.
7. Work to broaden the base of support for the People's Republic of Angola in the U.S.

Attending the Havana conference were members and representatives of the following organizations:

Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, (AFL-CIO); American Committee on Africa; American Friends Service Committee; Black Economic Research Center; CASA-General Brotherhood of Workers; Coalition of Black Trade Unionists (NYC); Coalition for a New Foreign Policy; MPLA Solidarity Committee; National Anti-Imperialist Solidarity Movement for African Liberation; National Conference of Black Lawyers; National Council of Churches (Africa Office); Puerto Rican Socialist Party; Prairie Fire Organizing Committee; Third World Coalition/Southwest Workers Federation; U.S. Out of Angola Committee and Chicago Committee for the Liberation of Angola, Mozambique and Guinea; Venceremos Brigade; Washington Office on Africa; Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and Youth Against War and Fascism.

Members of the press included, the Afro-American Newspapers (Baltimore Afro-American), Bilalian News (two journalists attended), Black Scholar, Freedomways Magazine, the San Francisco Sun Reporter and one freelance labor journalist.

Import of skins from Namibia halted temporarily by U.S.

WASHINGTON, March 22 — The federal government has temporarily halted a U.S. company from importing 50,000 seal fur skins from Namibia (Southwest Africa), the territory below Angola illegally occupied by South Africa.

The director of the National Marine Fisheries Service, Robert W. Schoning, refused to allow the Fouke Company to bring in the furs due to the "complex" foreign policy issues involved. The decision is a victory for 14 members of the Congressional Black Caucus and five organizations supporting African freedom who jointly filed legal motions with the Commerce Department, through the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, to prevent the trade. The organizations include the American Committee on Africa, the Washington Office on Africa, Episcopal Churchmen for South Africa, SWAPO (the liberation movement of Namibia) and the Center for National Security Studies.

T. Michael Peay, attorney for the Lawyers Committee, and Goler T. Butcher, former chief counsel to the House International Relations Subcommittee on Africa, filed motions in September 1975 to stop the Namibian imports. The lawyers contend the imports are precluded by the clearly stated policy of the government concerning Namibia.

They note, for example, the letter dated Jan. 16, 1976 from Secretary Kissinger's deputy, Robert Ingersoll, to the Secretary of Commerce with the State Department's views that "... to permit the importation of Namibian fur seal skins would be in contravention of our international legal obligations."

The matter has been referred to the Justice Department for guidance on whether the United States' international obligation, arising out of a 1971 ruling by the World Court, overrides the domestic environmental legislation governing such imports. The World Court ruled, and the U.S. accepted the Court's decision, that all states should refrain from economic relations which support South Africa's illegal occupation of Namibia.
